Up And Down Stairs The History Of Country House Servant Jeremy Musson

Up And Down Stairs The History Of Country House Servant Jeremy Musson

Up and Down Stairs is an absorbing, well-illustrated account of domestic service in English country houses from the Middle Ages to the present. Jeremy Musson draws extensively on primary sources, including servants' letters, diaries, and oral accounts, similar testimony from servants' employers, guides to household management, and drawings and photographs.

Well-researched and easy to read, this book at once satiated my desire to know more about the history of the country house servant and left me wanting more. The author did a very good job showing not only the tasks and lives of the servants, but also how and why that lifestyle evolved, as well as how that, in turn, affected architectural design.
